Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Garinger of Tampa. Mrs. Garinger wore the most unusual shift in the "Loud Shirt & Shift" contest at the Annual Membership Meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel D. Wolfe of St. Petersburg. They took the prize as twins in the "Loud Shirt & Shift" contest. They are also members of the Sunset Chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Monroe of Eagle Lake. They didn't win any prizes. Mr. Monroe is the Executive Secretary of the AHS.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brandon of Riverview. Mr. Brandon was one of the winners of the "Loud Shirt" contest. He is retiring president of the Sunset Chapter.

Winners at the "Loud Shirt & Shift" contest at the Annual Meeting were l. to r. Mr. Mark Swingley of Tampa, Mrs. Walker Lyon of Madeira Beach, Mrs. Lloyd Garinger of Tampa and Mr. Charles Brandon of Riverview. All are members of the Sunset Chapter.

Mrs. J. F. Branyon of Wallace, North Carolina and Mr. Frank Ireland of Lakeland, Florida, were winners in the "Loud Shirt & Shift" contest. They took the prize for being the most unusual twins. By some quirk of fate Mrs. Branyon from North Carolina and Mr. Ireland from Florida, total strangers, purchased matching outfits for the contest without knowing that the other had done so.